FLOWERING H.O.P.E. FOUNDATION FOUNDER JASON CRANFORD WINS AWARD

(Denver, CO) — Jason Cranford, founder of The Flowering H.O.P.E. Foundation was presented with The Hope Award by Colorado's Cannabis Business Awards. The awards were presented to cannabis industry businesses, individuals and organizations, in both medical and recreational sectors. The awards were presented on December 10, 2014 at the Holiday White Ball.

About the Flowering H.O.P.E. Foundation:

The Flowering H.O.P.E. Foundation's goal is to facilitate safe access to life changing medication to those that suffer from multiple ailments, including but not limited to, Cancer, Crohn's Disease, Epilepsy, Alzheimer's and Multiple Sclerosis. We create opportunities for patients to receive a better quality of life, making it possible for parents and caregivers to have some piece of mind that their loved ones get the best chance at a successful future. We also strive to spread medical cannabis education to communities far and wide.
